

British Values at Rossmore School

The DfE have recently reinforced the need
“to create and enforce a clear and rigorous expectation on all schools to promote the fundamental British values of democracy, the rule of law, individual liberty, mutual respect and tolerance of those with different faiths and beliefs.”

Here at Rossmore we cover many of these values in our day to life and also within the lessons we teach.

British Value:

Democracy

The rule of law

Individual liberty

Mutual respect

Tolerance of those with different faiths and beliefs

At Rossmore we:

Have a democratic school council
Receive visits from our Mayor and MP
Learn about our history

Create class and school rules
Have a school uniform
Learn about emergency services through assemblies and guests

We are encouraged to have our own opinion
Self assess our work and learning
Freedom of choice in Dojo time

Discuss our disputes by sharing our thoughts and feelings

Work with our talk partners
Learn to respect opinions in PSHE

Learn about different faiths and beliefs in R.E.

Encourage children of different religions to share in class
