Dear Parents/Guardians

We are very excited to announce that we are introducing the Lion's Pride Award at Rossmore.

The Lion's Pride Award is a new award that will celebrate children's achievements, encourage resilience and strength and allow for you and your child to have hours of fun together.

Over the course of the year, the children will need to complete activities from four categories: My Interests, Get Active and Stay Active, Me and My World and Adventure. Lots of activities that you already do together will fit into these categories and your children's hobbies will count towards the awards too.

Bronze, Silver, Gold and Platinum awards can be earned when your child completes 30 hours of activities for Bronze Award, 35 hours of activities to gain Silver Award, 40 hours of activities to gain Gold and 45 hours of activities to gain Platinum Award.

At the moment, our information booklets are looking a little bare. We need to fill them with pictures of the children doing fun and exciting activities. With this in mind, we're asking children to send their first few photos in as soon as possible after enrolling. The first pictures in will be chosen to represent the award – and school- on the covers of our information booklets. We can't wait to see your pictures, everyone!

Please see the attached documents for more information about each award and how they can be earned.
