

Year 2 Down the Road (Survival)

Intent: Understand what survival means, why it is important and how we achieve it. They will be able to use rich vocabulary to talk about their experiences of visits and visitors and their learning.

Hook: Photograph of an Owl hunting a Mouse.

P4C

(‘botheredness’)

Resilience, wellbeing, strength

Notable people

Who?	What did they do?
David Attenborough	He is a natural historian who has researched the planet looking at habitats and food chains.
Samuel Pepys	Famous for the diary he kept which spanned over a decade and included the events of the Great fire of London.
Henri Matisse	French Artist known for using lots of colour and collage.

Key Vocabulary

Survival, adaptation, species, food chain, habitats, micro-habitats, food sources, consume, capital city, country, compass, North, West, East, South, carbohydrates, protein, minerals, oils, fibre, flammable, inflammable, Bible, fibre, carbohydrates, fats, minerals, nutrients, protein, fluid, primary colours, secondary colours, dynamics, pitch, tempo

Key Dates

Time	Fact
1666	The Great Fire of London

Trips, Visitors and Visits

(Residential) trip to Delamere.

Visit at school from Zoo Keeper of Chester Zoo.

Visit from Reverend Howard to read and learn about Bible stories.

Authentic Product	Subjects Covered	Knowledge of
Authentic Experience visiting Delamere Forest (residential)	Science—Living Things and Their Habitats Art—Drawing and sketching Geography—knowledge about the UK	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• The four compass points are North, East, South, West</li> <li>• Living things can be split into three groups: 1. things that are alive 2. things that were alive but are now dead 3. things that have never lived.</li> <li>• Living things are made from cells and they use food to produce energy .</li> <li>• Things that are dead are made from cells and things that have never lived are not made from cells.</li> <li>• Animals live in different types of habitats that suit them best e.g. hot, cold, dry or wet</li> <li>• Different techniques to shade e.g. cross-hatching, dots, hatching and smudging</li> <li>• Shading is the different between dark and light</li> <li>• Delamere is in a rural area which means it is mostly surrounded by countryside.</li> <li>• Delamere is mostly forests and lakes.</li> </ul>
(Digital) Book	Computing (First Footsteps in a digital World and Strange Creatures) Science—Animals including humans	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Animals can grow in different ways e.g. egg—caterpillar—pupa—butterfly or spawn—tadpole - frog and that human growth includes: baby—toddler—child—teenager—adult</li> <li>• Energy passes from one animal to another as they eat plants or one another. This flow of energy from one living thing to another is called a food chain.</li> <li>• Humans are at the end of the food chain because they eat both plants and animals that have consumed other forms of energy</li> <li>• Using skills to add images, text boxes and voice recordings</li> </ul>
Create a fitness advert	Science—Animals including Humans DT—Cooking and Nutrition	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Healthy humans need a balanced diet to include fibre, carbohydrates, proteins, fats and minerals</li> <li>• Benefits of 60 minutes of PE a day and the effect it has on their body</li> <li>• Drinking plenty of fluids everyday to be able to survive</li> <li>• Animals and humans need water, food, air and shelter to survive</li> <li>• Animals growing, becoming older and changing over time</li> </ul>

MINI TOPIC	Subjects Covered	Knowledge of:
Great Fire of London	History—Events beyond living memory Geography—knowledge of the UK Art—Collage Science—Materials DT—Design, Make, Evaluate Music—Composition	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• There are four countries that make up the UK: England, Scotland, Wales and Northern Ireland. They each have a capital city: England: London, Scotland: Edinburgh, Wales: Cardiff and Northern Ireland: Belfast</li> <li>• The seas surrounding the UK are the North, Irish and Celtic Seas and the English Channel</li> <li>• How to create different textures with mark styles and finer/thicker brushes</li> <li>• The fire began in a small bakery on Pudding Lane</li> <li>• The fire burnt down many buildings to include St Paul's Cathedral</li> <li>• Samuel Pepys called King Charles II for help</li> <li>• How houses are built has changed over time and why</li> <li>• Materials that are flammable</li> <li>• Dynamics, pitch and tempo can create the mood of piece of music</li> <li>• A collage is a picture that is made by sticking lots of</li> </ul>
Why did Jesus teach people through stories?  Free Choice— Link RE to No Outsiders programme	RE	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• The Bible and its importance to Christians</li> <li>• The significance of Jesus through stories of the Bible.</li> </ul>

See long term plans for French, PE, Literacy, Maths and SRE