

Rossmore School Agreement

The School's Commitment

Governors, Head teacher and Staff are committed to doing their best to ensure that all pupils receive a quality education in an environment which develops a strong sense of social, cultural, moral and spiritual values amongst the pupils by:

- Providing the highest standards of teaching using a variety of teaching strategies.
- Encouraging the children to do their best at all times in order to achieve their full potential
- Encouraging attitudes and behaviour, which develop honest, polite, well-behaved young people who respect themselves, staff, each other, their community and property.
- Providing equality of opportunity regardless of gender, race or disability.
- Building partnerships with parents keeping them informed about school activities through regular letters, newsletters and notices.
- Setting appropriate homework on a regular basis to assist pupils' learning.
- Informing parents of children's progress throughout the year and through termly reports and parents' evenings.

Parents' Commitment

For our school to be successful we require you, our parents, to demonstrate your support by ensuring your commitment to:

- Supporting the schools disciplinary procedures by giving full co-operation to all staff within the school and ensuring your child abides by all the school's rules, including the anti bullying policy.
- Ensuring that your child is on time for school and attends regularly, informing school about any unavoidable absence before 8.55 am and endeavouring not to take holidays during term time, if at all possible.
- Providing full school uniform and equipment in line with school regulations.
- Supporting the school by ensuring that pupils display the highest standards of behaviour at all times both inside and outside of school.
- Supporting the school's homework policy by ensuring that your child completes all of his/her homework on time.
- Informing school of any issues that might affect your child's work or behaviour.
- Attending Parents' Evenings and discussions about your child's progress.

Pupil's Commitment

At Rossmore we insist that pupils:

- Always abide by school rules maintaining high standards of discipline inside and outside of school.
- Are always polite, courteous and helpful to all pupils and adults within the school.
- Bring all necessary equipment to school, not forgetting PE kit.
- Work to their full potential in all subjects at all times.
- Come dressed correctly in full school uniform.
- Complete and hand in all homework on time.

Rossmore Agreement

Pupil's Commitment

I understand the Rossmore Agreement. I will wear my uniform with pride. I will treat my fellow pupils and staff with respect. I will not hurt any other pupil physically or verbally at any time. I will work hard in all my lessons without disturbing others, completing all homework on time.
