

Rossmore School

Anti-Bullying Policy

Aims

At Rossmore we recognise the negative impact that bullying can have on a child's life. As a result, we do all we can to prevent it, by developing a school ethos in which bullying is regarded as unacceptable.

We aim, as a school, to manage behaviour well to provide a safe, supportive and secure environment that the children want to attend and where all can learn and thrive without anxiety, and where measures are in place to reduce the likelihood of bullying due to children being taught how to behave well and appropriately.

This policy aims to produce a consistent school response to any bullying incidents that may occur.

We strive to make all those connected with Rossmore aware of our opposition to all types of bullying, and we make clear each person's responsibilities with regard to the eradication of bullying in our school.

Definition - What is bullying?

There are a great many definitions of what constitutes bullying and bullying behaviour. Most definitions consider it as being repeated words or actions, which are aimed at causing another to feel frightened, miserable or helpless. All bullying and bullying behaviour has the following in common:

- it is deliberately hurtful;
- it is repeated, often over a period of time;
- it is difficult for the target of the bully or bullying behaviours to defend themselves against the negative behaviour
- seriously damages a young person's confidence and sense of self worth
- can lead to prolonged emotional damage

Bullying or bullying behaviour can be categorised into the following however there is no hierarchy of bullying – all forms of bullying should be taken equally seriously and dealt with appropriately.

Physical

Assault, pushing, shouldering, elbowing, tripping, slapping, kicking, hair pulling, unacceptable touching (including that of a sexual nature), throwing missiles, blocking i.e. preventing movement through an access point, pinching, stabbing, burning, spitting or any other form of physical activity that makes another person feel threatened or intimidated.

Verbal

Racist, sexual, homophobic, biphobic, transphobic (HBT) words used in a derogatory manner, any words used in a sexual or aggressive manner designed to hurt or cause deliberate offence, comments about size, appearance, odour, clothing, academic or other abilities, home life, social circumstances, financial circumstances, spreading rumours or any bothersome outcomes designed to be hurtful or used to intimidate.

Written

Any insults contained in note-passing, threatening letters, graffiti, defacing any property belonging to another individual.

Interference with another individual

Theft, extortion, vandalism, defacing of property, ruling games, blackmail or any other activity designed to intimidate or hurt.

Psychological pressure – silent bullying

Social exclusion, rude gestures, lying, slander, passing or starting rumours, name calling, reorganising or pressurising friendship groups or any other activity designed to intimidate or hurt an individual.

Racist bullying

Name calling, incitement, making comments about a person's country or culture or appearance or commenting on parents or spreading rumours.

Homophobic, biphobic and transphobic bullying (HBT)

Name calling, making hurtful comments, using LGBTQ vocabulary in a negative way (e.g. – using gay to express something as inferior), commenting or slandering parents or other relations/friends including spreading rumours.

Subtle bullying

Looking at a person in a particular way, swearing at or about a person.

Incitement of others

To become involved e.g. by blackmailing, excluding, or threatening behaviours.

Cyber bullying

Emailing or texting about a person or to a person, spreading rumours or defacing or corrupting a piece of work. Instant Messaging or posting on a social network platform such as Facebook and using any language identified above. This is also applicable to online forums and chat rooms.

The role of Governors

The Governing Body supports the Headteacher in all attempts to eliminate bullying from our school. The Governing Body will not condone any bullying at all in our school, and any incidents of bullying that do occur will be taken very seriously, and dealt with appropriately.

The Governors require the Headteacher to keep accurate records of all incidents of bullying, and to report to the Governors on request about the effectiveness of school anti-bullying strategies.

A parent who is dissatisfied with the way the school has dealt with a bullying incident can ask the Chair of Governors to look into the matter. The Governing Body responds within ten days to any request from a parent to investigate incidents of bullying. In all cases, the Governing Body notifies the Headteacher, and asks her to conduct an investigation into the case, and to report back to a representative of the Governing Body. [see complaints policy]

Responsibility

It is the responsibility of all staff to ensure the implementation of the school anti-bullying strategies, and to ensure that all staff (both teaching and non-teaching) are aware of the school policy, and know how to identify and deal with incidents of bullying. The Headteacher/Assistant Headteacher reports to the Governing Body about the effectiveness of the anti-bullying policy on request.

The Headteacher, SPIL and Senior Leadership team ensures that all children know that bullying is wrong, and that it is unacceptable behaviour in our school. The Headteacher draws the attention of children to this fact at suitable moments. For example, if an incident occurs, the Headteacher or senior leaders of the school may decide to use an assembly as the forum in which to discuss with other children why this behaviour was wrong, and why a pupil is being punished. Areas such as language surrounding racism and HBT are discussed during PSHE, whole school assemblies and work on British Values (acceptance, mutual respect etc) to ensure pupils have a clear understanding of what language is acceptable and unacceptable.

The Headteacher/Deputy/Assistant Headteacher ensures that all staff, including lunchtime staff, receives sufficient training to be equipped to identify and deal with all incidents of bullying.

The Headteacher sets the school climate of mutual support and praise for success, so making bullying less likely. When children feel they are important and belong to a friendly and welcoming school, bullying is far less likely to be part of their behaviour.

The role of the teacher and support staff

All the staff in our school takes all forms of bullying seriously, and seek to prevent it from taking place by:

- creating a calm and safe environment
- establishing clear boundaries of acceptable behaviour
- teaching and modelling expected behaviour and positive relationships
- listening to the child
- ensuring a record of the incident is made and is added onto CPOMS. If the bullying is related to HBT, this will be recorded on the CPOMS system and SLT will be informed via an emailed link, staff will then be supported on how to deal with any issues
- informing the Headteacher/Assistant Headteacher/SPIL
- speaking to the child
- speaking to the victims and perpetrator's parent
- actively set up a system to try and prevent future incidents. E.g. inform the SPIL so that some 1-1 work can be completed with the child.
- ensuring that the school rewards and sanctions are followed consistently and that the school behaviour policy is followed.

If teachers witness an act of bullying, they will either investigate it themselves or refer it to the Headteacher/Deputy/Assistant Headteacher.

Teachers and support staff do all they can to support the child who is being bullied. This may involve counselling and support for the victim, and suitable consequences for the offender, including explaining to them why their action was wrong and how they should change their behaviour in future. If a child is being bullied over a period of time, then, after consultation with the Headteacher/Deputy/Assistant Headteacher or SPIL a meeting will be arranged with the child's parents.

The Headteacher/Deputy/Assistant Headteacher, SPIL records all incidents of bullying both within school, near school and on the journeys to and from school using the school's recording system CPOMS.

In more extreme cases, e.g. where these initial discussions have proved ineffective, the Headteacher/Deputy/Assistant Headteacher, SPIL may contact external support agencies such as social care or teams that support mental health in children.

The role of Parents/Carers

Parents are asked to actively support our schools anti-bullying policy, behaviour policy and sign the home school agreement which all promote good behaviour. Parents should feel confident that our school does not tolerate bullying and deals with any incidents swiftly and seriously. If they suspect that their child may be the perpetrator or the victim of bullying, they should contact their child's class teacher immediately. If they are not satisfied with the response, they should contact the Headteacher/Assistant Headteacher.

The role of Pupils

Pupils are encouraged to tell someone they trust if they feel they are being bullied, and if the bullying continues, they must keep on reporting it.

Pupils are invited to tell us their views about a range of school issues, including bullying, in a number of ways. Our SPIL, teaching staff and teaching assistant staff are a visible presence on the playground at play and lunchtime and are available for the children to speak with.

Anti-bullying within the curriculum

Our school uses a range of methods to help prevent bullying and to establish a climate of trust and respect for all. They use drama, role-play, P4C, No Outsiders, stories etc., within the formal curriculum, to help pupils understand the feelings of bullied children, and to practise the restraint required to avoid lapsing into bullying behaviour. Time is given in class to praise, reward, and celebrate the success of all children, and thus to help create a positive atmosphere. Areas such as language surrounding racism and HBT are discussed during PSHE, No Outsiders and work on British Values (acceptance, mutual respect etc) to ensure pupils have a clear understanding of what language is acceptable and unacceptable.

In addition, through our computing curriculum, pupils learn about online safety (including cyber bullying) and how to stay safe.

Each year, school recognises anti-bullying week and uses this time to focus heavily on how to prevent bullying.

We strive to ensure that the contributions of all pupils are valued and everyone feels secure and able to contribute to school life. We challenge stereotypical views and value differences in others whether arising from race, culture, gender, gender identity, sexuality, ability or disability.

Monitoring, reporting and review

This policy is monitored by the Headteacher/Assistant Head/SPIL and Governors.

This policy will be reviewed in line with our behaviour policy, every year, or earlier if necessary.
